The cage for large birds in St. Louis' Zoological Gardens in Forest Park. Built just prior to the famous Louisiana Purchase Exposition in 1904, it remains the largest bird cage in the world. Storks, cranes, sea gulls, peacocks, pelicans and many other large birds are to be seen here.

PAUL MONROE COMPANY, ST. LOUIS, MISSOURI

GENUINE CURTEICH-CHICAGO "C. T. ART-COLORTONE" POST CARD (REG. U. S. PAT. OFF.)

POST CARD

54—The Bird Cage in Zoological Gardens, Forest Park, St. Louis, Mo.

OB-H318